Dear Dr. Green,

I am writing a report for a Utah History class on Hailstone. Mr. Kenneth Lee and Mr. Jim Smedley suggested I should write to you. Would you be able to furnish me with some information? Do you have any photographs I would be able to use for my report? I could arrange to come to your home for an interview if it would be more convenient.

Thank you,

Ilene Hamblin

*Hailstone was located under what is now
Jordanville Dam
801-789-6120*

Named for Wm Perrett Hailstone who lived there a short time.

The LDS Branch was called Elkhorn, and included hamlets of Keetley, Moultonville, Hailstone, Jordanville & up the Provo River to Francis.

Sweeneys had a pole camp in Hailstone & a few cabins for his men. They tracked in long timbers & made telephone poles and mine props. Later they moved their operation to Uintah Basin

at one time there was a service station & small grocery store in Hailstone run by Irene North and husband Wayne.

Prominent families who have lived over →

there have been many ; including :
Sweeneys, Moultons, Davises, Morris,es, Bairds, Turnbours, Dukes, Cummings, Jordans Berqs, Lemons, Bates, Auerbachs, Lees, and many more.

at one time there was an hydroelectric plant located just east of the road to Salt Lake.

Industries there were : Gardening

Grazing of Sheep

" " Cattle

Mining near by, in Keetley.

Dairying

Sport fishing in Provo River and the others mentioned above.

At any one time there probably were no more than 100 people = men women & children in that area.

I do have pictures but will reserve those to be published in my book on that area - which will be in much greater detail -

Sincerely,

Dr Green

Dear Patients:

It is with deep regret that we are compelled to take drastic steps to collect the unpaid balances in this office. As of the 31st of May there will be attached a charge of 1.5 percent interest on all unpaid balances each month. This amounts to 18 percent per annum.

This has never been done in this office in 27 years, but it has now become necessary.

Sincerely,
